

TRAVEL DISPUTE FORM

READ THIS FIRST

You should visit the travel provider's website for the latest advice on your trip. They will update it with details about how to make your claim.

Did you book your holiday through a Travel Agent/Tour Operator that is still trading?

You must contact them before contacting us. They should be able to tell you if your holiday can still go ahead, if they can offer you an alternative, or if they can provide a refund.

Did you book a package holiday including flights?

Check your booking confirmation/invoice, you'll have an ATOL certificate. You should visit the CAA website for details about how to make a claim.

If you've already contacted the CAA and they were unable to help, please complete the form below and make sure you attach the CAA's response.

For non-flight holidays, accommodation only, coach holidays, self-drive or non-flight cruises.

Check to see if your invoice refers to cover from ABTA, CPT, BCH or Financial Failure Insurance (or any reference to a bonding authority or insurance scheme).

You must attempt to make a claim directly with them before contacting us.

In order to claim a refund for you we must have:

- A copy of your holiday invoice.
- Details of how you've contacted the relevant travel agent, bonding authority and/or insurance scheme. Make sure you include any response you received.
